

Appendix 1

International Student Scholarships 2008

The following 11 individuals are enrolled in graduate theological studies (with one exception) in colleges and universities in Canada, Cuba, Hong Kong, Kenya, Philippines, South Africa, and Uganda. They have been endorsed by their Provincial Theological Education Commission, or equivalent, (with one exception) and are financially supported, in part, by Anglican Church of Canada scholarship funding.

Africa

The Rev. Emmanuel Gatera, Provincial Secretary, Eglise Episcopale du Rwanda (EER) Beginning studies September 2008, St. Stephen's College, Alberta, towards the Doctor of Ministry: Pastoral Education. Fr. Emmanuel seeks to apply his doctorate towards the development of Pastoral Care and Trauma Counselling in the training of clergy and laity in the EER.

Scholarship: 3-way partnership between St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Calgary, Compass Rose Society: Canada, and Partnerships.
Expected Date of completion: 2012
Annually: Up to $20,000 as needed.

The Rev. George Kuria, Priest, Diocese of Thika, Anglican Church of Kenya (ACK). Fr. George is completing his B.Th. degree at St. Paul's University, Limuru, Kenya, in preparation for M. Th. studies at University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg, South Africa.

Scholarship: Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2010
Annually: $6000

The Rev. Edidah-Mary Mujinya, Professor and Chaplain, Diocese of West Ankole, Church of Uganda. Mama Edidah-Mary is completing her dissertation on 'The Role of Education in Ugandan Society's Moral Development' towards the Doctor of Philosophy degree, Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda. She is a leader in the Church of Uganda's tertiary education system.

Scholarship: Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2009
Annually: $3700

The Rev. Archford Musodza, Priest, Diocese of Botswana, Anglican Church of Southern Africa, former Dean of Studies, The College of the Transfiguration, Grahamstown, South Africa. Fr. Archford is completing his coursework in Church History towards a Doctor of Theology degree, University of South Africa, Pretoria. He intends to write a dissertation on the history of the Anglican Church in Zimbabwe.

Scholarship: Partnerships, and previously USPG UK
Expected Date of Completion: 2009
Annually: $5500

Ms. Mithali Ongachi, Lay Evangelist, Diocese of Maseno North, Anglican Church of Kenya. Miss Mithali is a young lay evangelist in the Diocese of Maseno enrolled in the Master of Theology program, Nairobi International School of Theology (NIST).

Scholarship: NIST and Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2010
Annually: $5000

The Rev. Mary Onginjo, Priest, Lecturer, Chaplain, Diocese of Maseno South, Anglican Church of Kenya. Mama Mary has entered her third and final year of course work towards a Doctor of Theology, Maseno University, Maseno, Kenya. Her dissertation topic will be 'Pauline theology of the church's social responsibility, and its relevance for the Kenyan church today'.

Scholarship: Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2010
Annually: $5000

Latin America/Caribbean

Mr. Leonel Abaroa Bologna, Layman, Episcopal Church of Cuba. Leonel has finished his doctoral coursework and will begin comprehensive exams in autumn 2009 towards completion of a Doctor of Theology, Trinity College, Toronto. Leonel's area of research is the integration of popular religious thought, discourse and action within the institutional Episcopal Church in Cuba.

Scholarship: Cuba-Malaita Trust Fund and Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2011
Annually: $26,000

The Rev. Susana Lerena Lopez, Deacon, Diocese of Uruguay. Susana is beginning her year long studies towards the Licenciatura of Theology at the Seminario Evangélico de Teología, Matanzas, Cuba. Susana's area of interests in diaconal ministry and academic research include women's justice issues and feminist theology.

Scholarship: Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2009
Annually: $5500

Asia/Pacific

The Rev. Andrew S'Zaw Lwin, Priest and Professor, Holy Cross Theological College, Church of the Province of Myanmar, Yangon, Myanmar. Andrew is a student in the Doctor of Ministry program at the Vancouver School of Theology, Vancouver. He is currently completing coursework and proposes to focus his ministry research in the area of homiletics. Andrew's spouse, Grace Mee, and their two children, Emmanuella and Shalom are also at VST

Scholarship: VST and Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2011
Annually: $40,000

Daw Khin Thida Nyunt, Provincial Coordinator, Religious Education and Religious Music, Church of the Province of Myanmar. Thida is currently finishing revisions to her dissertation towards a Doctor of Theology degree at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Hong Kong. Thida's dissertation topic: The development of effective religious education for children in Myanmar. Thida will return to her work with the Province at the end of 2008.

Scholarship: Partnerships, and previously USPG UK
Expected Date of Completion: 2008
Annually: $2500

The Very Re. Eleuterio Revollido, Principal, Aglipay Central Theological Seminary, Iglesia Filipina Independiente (IFI), Philippines. Fr. Terry is currently completing the writing of his dissertation on the history of the IFI: 1940-1970 towards a Doctor of Theology from Santo Tomas University, Manila. For security reasons, we hope Fr. Terry and his family will spend one year in the Diocese of Montreal, completing his doctorate and experiencing sanctuary from paramilitary threats.

Scholarships: Diocese of Montreal and Partnerships
Expected Date of Completion: 2009
Annually: TBA

International Students: Studies and Scholarship Completed in 2008

Ms. Pamela Abana, Ordinand, Diocese of Central Melanesia, Church of Melanesia, Solomon Islands. Bachelor of Theology, St. John's Theological Consortium, Auckland, New Zealand

The Very Rev. Larry Herrera, Rector, St. Pauls' Theological Seminary, Iloilo
Master of Theology, Central Philippines University, Iloilo, Philippines

Ms. Jisuk Yeom, Diocese of Seoul, Anglican Church of Korea
Master of Divinity, Trinity College, Toronto