

Becoming a Global Community High School Kit on Human Trafficking

This kit provides a series of lessons that can assist teachers at the high school level to make their students more aware of the injustice of human trafficking. It is available in English or French. The kit can easily be adapted to a parish youth catechetical program.

It includes:

A DVD on which there is a play called the Oldest Oppression and a Power Point presentation. There is also a booklet of handouts and activities as well as teacher notes for the power point. A post card with information of another DVD is also included.

This kit was developed through a generous donation from the School Sisters of Notre Dame and the hard work of Sr. Sheila Smith and the Round Table on Human Trafficking. A special thank you is extended to the students of St. Mary's Academy in Winnipeg for their creation of the Oldest Oppression. Thanks to Thomas and Chanéle Bouchard for their preparation of the DVD and Power Point in English and French and to One Stop Media Shop in Vancouver for making multiple copies of the DVD.
